

THE FOREST HOME LEGACY

It's been over 70 years since Dr. Henrietta C. Mears established a humble Christ-centered camp, nestled in the heart of the San Bernardino Mountains. Since that time, through the grace and guidance of God, Forest Home has matured into a world-class camp and conference center supporting two distinct locations in both Mill Creek Canyon and Ojai Valley.

We are working persistently to uphold Dr. Mears' legacy by protecting the essential pillars of Forest Home which she passed on:

- ❖ The truth of the living word of God,
- ❖ The necessity of partnership with believers,
- ❖ The immeasurable significance of family,
- ❖ The responsibility of raising the next generation of Christ followers,
- ❖ The balance of blending excellence with humility,
- ❖ The value of memorable and resonating experiences,
- ❖ The importance of sanctuary, solitude and silence before Him, and the harmony available to guests who feel truly at "home."

Forest Home's Mission: To be a place, away from the distractions of the world, where people can hear the Word of God & encounter Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Forest Home is a non-profit Christian organization that provides year-round, non-denominational, evangelical ministry.

We provide 150 life-changing programs to more than 40 denominations & are blessed to humbly minister to 56,000 men, women & children in a single year.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

In 1962, Martha Mortenson answered a call from God to create an organization with the straightforward and admirable goal of maintaining the cabins at Forest Home. Martha also began to enlist other dedicated women who wished to serve God in tangible ways. Now, 46 years later, God has blessed Martha's legacy in a huge way. There are now 34 chapters of the Forest Home Women's Auxiliary spread throughout Southern California.

The worthwhile and cooperative fundraising efforts of these dedicated, Christ-centered women have contributed over 3.5 million dollars to camp scholarships allowing men, women, boys and girls from all over the nation to attend Forest Home and hear the message of Christ. FHWA has also provided funds for buildings as well as projects that preserve the camp's standard of excellence.

THE PURPOSE OF THE AUXILIARY

Outreach & spiritual growth through prayer, Bible study, & fellowship

To provide Forest Home camp scholarships for all ages

To help upgrade the physical facilities of Forest Home

COME BE A PART OF SOMETHING SIGNIFICANT

You are invited to answer the call. Chapters meet once a month throughout Los Angeles, Orange County, San Diego, North San Diego and the Inland Empire. FHWA currently has 600 godly, prayer-led women who are changing the world, serving Forest Home and forming lasting friendships with similar believers who are on fire for Christ.

If you feel led to answer that call, please contact:
